Dear Takahiro Imai,

I trust this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. On behalf of the European Society for Cardiovascular and Endovascular Surgery (ESCVS), it is my honor and pleasure to extend a warm invitation to you to participate as the scientific faculty in the 72nd Annual ESCVS Congress, scheduled to be held from the 25th to the 28th of May 2024 in the vibrant city of Istanbul.

As a distinguished professional in cardiovascular surgery, your expertise and contributions have been widely recognized. I want to say that I am thrilled to have you in the program. The Congress will provide an excellent platform to share your insights, engage in discussions, and collaborate with fellow experts worldwide. Your presence and contribution will undoubtedly enhance the scientific discourse and contribute to the success of the Congress.

You can find the details of the programme below; however, please keep in mind that this is the preliminary programme and it is subject to change.
