

DEAR

TAKAHIRO IMAI

Angiomed Clinic is honored to invite you to participate as a guest speaker with a scientific presentation at the conference:
“Vein-Preserving Surgery in Modern Phlebology”

21-22

SEPTEMBER 2026

URALSK , REPUBLIC OF KAZAKHSTAN

The conference program will include:

- Scientific presentations by leading experts;
- Practical master classes;
- Live demonstrations of modern vein-preserving procedures, including ASVAL, CHIVA, and ClaCS.

We are honored to welcome Professor Takahiro Imai, a vascular surgeon and phlebologist from Japan, as our distinguished international guest. During the conference, he will share his clinical experience and conduct a live surgical master class.

The Organizing Committee will provide:

- Local transportation within the city;
- Full participation in all conference sessions and master classes.

We would be delighted to welcome you among the conference speakers and are confident that your scientific presentation and participation will make a valuable contribution to the advancement of modern vein-preserving surgery and phlebology.

WITH SINCERE RESPECT,
ORGANIZING COMMITTEE OF THE CONFERENCE
